

Cristian Fugaciu, Director General MARSH

Cristian developed his career alongside Marsh's development in Romania, and in 1997 he was one of the first brokers the company hired in Romania. He has contributed to important projects through which he constantly developed the company's portfolio.

Also, Cristian has accepted from the very beginning the pioneer role on the local market as well as the mission to continuously improve the insurance education level in Romania.