

Valentina Radu, Tax Senior Consultant, PwC

Valentina Radu is currently a Tax Senior Consultant within the Indirect Tax Department of PricewaterhouseCoopers and it has a degree in Accounting and Management Informatics within Economic Studies Academy. Valentina has a vast experience of over 4 years in Romanian VAT legislation, as well as EU law and jurisprudence. She was involved in various consultancy projects, tax reviews and audit assignment for VAT aspects. Her experience include projects in industries such as financial services, real estate and transfer of business.

In addition, Valentina was seconded for a period of approximately 2 months in the indirect tax department of PricewaterhouseCoopers Warsaw, where she gained more experience on financial services.